

AN ANTICIMEX COMPANY

Date: 1st February 2021

Media Release

Flick Anticimex strengthen its position in the Brisbane area through the acquisition of The Termite Man ("Termite Man")

Flick Anticimex starts the year by closing its first acquisition in Queensland, securing its market leader position in the South East Queensland area. The acquisition of Termite Man strengthens the local operations especially within the termite and residential services.

Termite Man was established in 2008 by Joshua Stephen and Trisha Page and will contribute with a strong presence in the area and support a geographical expansion of the Flick services as they have been servicing the city of Brisbane and the South East Queensland.

Joshua Stephen, Owner of Termite Man commented:

"We would like to firstly thank our fantastic team and customers for being part of our business for the past 13 years. Our success and achievements are because of our passion to deliver. Joining Flick Anticimex represents for us a great opportunity. Being part of Flick Anticimex, leveraging from their international experience as part of Anticimex Group, will allow us to further improve the quality level of our services by developing alternative and preventive SMART pest control solutions. Also, I am pleased to offer to our present and future employees new possibilities offered to us being part of this growing global organization. I am very proud of the success that our family owned company has achieved, thanks to our team and to our customers."

Rob Newby, Regional General Manager – North Region, Flick Anticimex commented:

"I am very happy and enthusiastic about this merger as Termite Man is a renowned and well-run business in the Brisbane area. We are all looking forward to working together with Josh and his Team as their culture of excellence toward employees and clients align naturally with the way we do things at Flick. Combining our decades of experience with the latest technological innovations will result in an even better customer service experience."
